

University of Mary Washington

First Phase of $115 Million Eagle Village Complete

<http://www.studenthousingbusiness.com>

October 1, 2010

Fredericksburg, VA - Construction is complete for Phase I of Eagle Village, a $115 million mixed-use project located on the campus of the University of Mary Washington in Fredericksburg. The first phase includes a five-story, 624-bed student housing complex that opened for the fall semester. Amenities include high-quality finishes in the units, a large meeting room, a billiards room and a large fireplace with a 55-inch television. Subsequent phase of Eagle Village will include retail, office and hospitality space.

The University of Mary Washington Foundation owns the 21-acre property, and Concord Eastridge is the master developer. Eagle Village is located on the site of the former Fredericksburg Park & Shop retail center.