Concord Eastridge, Inc. announces the introduction of our newest service, Strategic Hospitality Solutions. Led by a team of seasoned professionals in hospitality development, operations and finance, we are pleased to offer these excellent resources to the broader hospitality community. In today's challenging business climate, it is more important than ever to partner with a team that delivers results. The Concord Eastridge hospitality team has the real world development experience to help you evaluate and maximize the value of underperforming hospitality assets.

If your firm needs help with:

- Asset Management
- Completion of ground-up development
- Renovation of your hospitality asset
- Repositioning of hotel asset or brand
- Asset review or due diligence
- Recapitalization of hotel assets
- Conversion from another use to hospitality
- Mixed-use including hospitality
- Strategic Planning

Our team can help. We bring our vast experience in all areas of the hospitality industry to help you get your assets moving in the right direction. In addition, this team is backed by the full resources of Concord Eastridge, Inc., a leading developer in the hospitality field.
